No Aid Without Strings

While everyone has been pointing with alarm at Federal intervention in local affairs, it appears that perhaps we should be a little more alarmed at intervention closer to home.

Federal Aid to Education, apparently, is going to become a fact, whether we like it or not. There's some discussion of the possibility that the money will be allocated to the various states with no strings attached. This seems unlikely, with some of the southern states already in rebellion against Federal demands for an end to segregation.

The question arises as to whether it's any better to have the State government holding the purse strings than the Federal government. The different areas in Illinois are quite as separated in their desires, conditions and needs as different areas in the nation.

The state has not proved such an easy taskmaster. Gradually, law after law has been added to the State Code. Each must be complied with by local school boards and administrators under the constant threat of cessation of State Aid.

The latest example of what we believe is unwarranted interference is the Attorney General's ruling that school buses may not be used to transport students to athletic events as spectators.

The legislature, we understand, is considering a bill to rectify this. We certainly hope they do.

Here's one area where we see no reason for state interference, either to give, or withhold permission, nor to set statewide rules that must be conformed with.

These buses are bought and paid for, and supported, by Antioch taxpayers. State Aid? The money our state so generously returns to us is also contributed by the taxpayer.

We have a local school board. They pretty well reflect local opinion. If they didn't, they wouldn't be re-elected.

We also have a local principal. His words generally carry some weight with the board. He's paid to administer, to reach decisions in matters such as this. He's the one who will hear from parents and just plain citizens when matters displease them.

Presuming a district might have a generally poor school board, and an incapable administrator, they still have a county superintendent of schools to step in and see that things don't get too bad.

What suits Antioch Township might be found completely unsuitable, in some school matters, to a district in Southern Illinois, and vice versa.

State Fire Codes, yes. Some standardization of text books, yes. But when unnecessary state laws countermand the considered judgment of our local school board members and administrator, and the wishes of parents and taxpayers, we don't like it. Federal Aid or State Aid, let's keep as much as possible of the decision-making at home.

A.M.A. Makes Own Medicare Proposal

Too little, too late—that's about all that can be said for the desperation proposal of the A.M.A. of its own Medicare proposal, designed to stop the Federal program.

The A.M.A. has fought a long fight against the federal government's successive attempts to provide Medical care to the aged, without ever coming up with a good counter-plan. They've won, up to this year, partly because public opinion was against the plan.

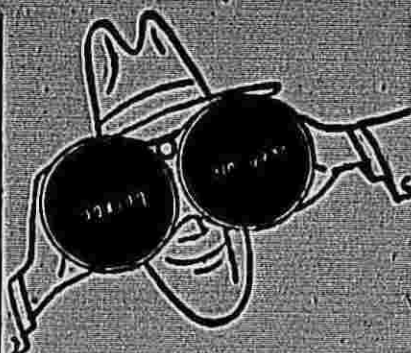

Their best defense, of course, would have been a good offense. Had they been able to propose a fairly workable and not-too-expensive plan of their own for medical care of the aged needy, Federal Aid would have died.

The primary aim of the association, unfortunately, seemed to be not so much concern for the sick as concern that doctors might come under some Federal control.

The A.M.A. now proposes a modification of the Kerr-Mills law to provide private health insurance to all over 65, with those who can afford it paying their own premiums, those who can't receiving the insurance at government cost. Applications for policies would be handled by state health departments rather than welfare departments. The insurance policies would be handled by private insurance companies.

Chief recommendation of the A.M.A.'s plan is that it would pay all costs of illness and hospitalization. No mention is made of the cost to individual policy holders or to the state.

Medicare has a running start on the A.M.A.'s plan, with everyone tacitly agreeing that it will SIGNS NOT OF THE TIMES: The Chamber of Commerce evidently believes in getting full use out of things. The sign at the corner of Main & Lake welcoming Bud Weisenborn to Antioch for Shriner's Day last August still swings in the breeze. Are you expecting him back soon, boys?

OF ALL THINGS! Would you know it, I threw out the wrong things when I cleaned house. Those 1940 comic books which I used to try to wean my children are now worth real coin. From $2 to $25 per. How's that for profit? And to think how happily I burned those price-less gems!

Collectors are avidly searching for early issues of Captain Marvel, Superman and other early heroes. Issues which came out during World War II are particularly sought.

Dig through the attic. Mother. Maybe you used some for packing some treasured trash. Wonder what will be the treasure of tomorrow?

THE MELANCHOLY DAYS ARE COME, the saddest of the year. 'Tis the season to pay for our folly. Christmas bills, and right on their heels, that sword of Damocles, April 15, income tax day.

April is a perfectly good month, and it is unkind of the Internal Revenue to have given it such a loathsome connotation. Everyone who loves April, stand up and fight. Let's get the deadline shifted, like to the 13th month of the year.

S-s-s-h, Pearl—they could make it the first month, too! If you have received your W-2 form, you've discovered that Internal Revenue Director E. C. Coyle was not kidding when he kept warning us that we weren't having enough deducted from our paychecks. And the more you make, the more deficient your deduction will be.

THE RETURN OF THE CORNER GROCERY Chain supermarkets have driven most small independent grocery stores out of business, at least in urban areas. Their passing was mourned by many, particularly the forgetful housewives who ran out of stock items at times when the supermarkets were closed.

But the family grocery is returning to the American scene, only in a new dress, with a new spirit and with a new name. They are now called convenience stores, bantams or superettes. They're drive-in, self-service and fast check-out little businesses, many of them resembling gas stations. No more of the old general store, easy-going ways, including credit till payday. But in its place is the advantage of speed for a quick dash in and out for the busy housewife. And lower prices, for these new superettes are either part of a chain, or probably be passed by Congress this year. And, boiled down, the A.M.A.'s plan simply seems to amount to private health insurance for those who can afford it (always available, if the policy holder was willing to pay the cost) and state funds, instead of federal, to pay for the rest. With the state paying for insurance that would cover all medical expenses, the cost would have to run pretty high.

In addition, we have the prospect of adding more workers to state health departments to engage in welfare work, not usually the concern of this department.

If the A.M.A. had made their proposal four years ago, it might have had a chance. Today, we doubt it.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU BURNIN

The courthouse rumor mill, which is never quiet, had a report making the rounds the other day that had the wholehearted approval of most of the county board members although they must have felt that it was perhaps too good to be true.

The report had Waukegan Assistant Supervisor John Balen, the lone member of the board elected as a Democrat, seeking the Democratic nomination for Mayor in the Waukegan municipal election.

The supervisors, who recently censured the hypercritical Balen, felt that even if he lost in the primary to Mayor Robert Sabonjian, which seemed a likely happenstance, he would so antagonize the Democratic organization that he would not be slated for re-election.

Balen, who can be counted upon to oppose virtually anything suggested on the floor of the county board, has not endeared himself to his fellow board members and they would welcome the chance to have him replaced.

While members of the Illinois General Assembly are pondering the many problems besetting them in Springfield as the new session gets underway, back at the ranch the big question concerns the slating of regular party tickets for the April township elections.

The Democrats broke a long tradition of non-partisan or bi-partisan township elections in 1961 by entering slates in some townships and stepped up the policy two years ago.

The Republicans in some areas followed suit and this year the pressure is even greater for party slates in the election.

GOP Central Committee Chairman Robert J. Milton, who served as a non-partisan assessor and supervisor from Shields Township briefly, has advocated GOP tickets in each township, but has not pressed the point, leaving the decision to the individual townships.

The divisive effect of such a program was clearly shown two years ago when Mel Mullins, of Avon, secured the GOP endorsement after a bitter caucus, but lost the race to independent Republican Norman Geary.

Much of the bitterness still endures and its effect on the Avon GOP vote in November was not inconsiderable. For the most part the township supervisors prefer the present arrangement whereby they pretty well control the makeup of their township tickets, a control they would have to relinquish to the precinct committee-men or to the township Republican or Democratic clubs.

For those who have worked closely with their regular privately-owned businesses, often belonging to a chain that gives them the benefit of lower prices.

The superettes usually stay open from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m., seven days a week. At present, they're mostly confined to the South and Southwest section of the country but are expected to catch on throughout the nation.

party organizations over the years this would probably present only a small problem, but for others who have been blessed with maverick committee-men it would mean an intra-party fight that could well split the organization and allow the opposition to gain the upper hand.

One who has little to worry about in any case is Guy L. Grinnell, veteran Libertyville supervisor and long-time board power, who can't lose either way since he has the virtual unanimous backing of the Republican committee-men in his township.

Cuba Supervisor Joseph P. Welch, another veteran board member and wheel, is also firmly in control of his independent township organization as well as the GOP organization and has little to worry about in the coming election.

The advantages for the regular parties to have the township officials running on party slates far outweigh any possible disadvantages, but the advantages for county and township government and the people of the townships are not quite so apparent.

Gov. Otto Kern, who left the problem of re-apportioning House districts during the last session strictly up to the legislature, has done an about-face and has presented his idea of what the new map should look like.

The governor's map is almost the reverse of one suggested by State Rep. W. J. Murphy at the last session and being pushed by Rep. John Conolly this time in that it puts the extreme west and south townships of Lake County in one district and the rest of the townships in another.

This would mean putting Deerfield Township and Antioch Township in the same district, which no doubt accounts for the wall of anguish from Murphy who could hardly be expected to relish the thought of running for the legislature again if he still has to contend with Deerfield township.

From this corner it appears that the legislators could simplify the re-mapping of the state if they just used maps and population information, ignoring the canvass figures from the last election.

Plano buffs should be happy to hear that Joe Harris is back at the Waukegan Inn with all of his old songs and jokes.

The songs improve with age, but those jokes . . .

Lake Villa Candidates File Petitions

Candidates for township offices of Lake Villa township on the coalition slate filed their petitions Monday, January 11.

Ronald Coles, Lindenhurst, now town clerk, heads the slate as candidate for the office of town supervisor. Other candidates are Dolores M. Hoffelt, West Mifflin, running for town clerk; Julia Chonis, Fox Lake Hills, town assessor; auditors, Milard Schneider, Lake Villa, Edward N. Streicher, Venetian Village, and Ronald Walker, Lake Villa.

Julia Chonis, candidate for assessor, made a good showing in the race for county auditor last fall. She is at present employed by the State Revenue Department as a Sales Tax Compliance Officer.

Election for township offices will be held April 6. The last day for filing petitions of candidacy is February 15.

Chairman of the coalition party is Dildley Mertes; co-chairman, John Thompson; publicity chairman, Julia Chonis, and finance chairman, Robert Streicher.

"Frostbite Campout" For Canvas Toppers

Undaunted by the cold weather, members of the Canvas-Toppers Camping Club have scheduled their first campout of the year for January 16 and 17 at the Chain of Lakes State Park. This is appropriately called the annual Frostbite Campout of the club.

A hike is being planned for February 14th, including a box lunch supplied by the ladies of the club.

ALONG THE WAY with Annie Mae

If there seems to be a slight snarl mingled into these typewritten words, I must explain it's because yours truly is on the third day of a brand new 1965 diet, and no matter what they say there seems to be no way to melt away the excess avoirdupois without standing on the brink of starvation! However, there is one thing that's apt to keep me going on this diet . . . My O. O. (One and Only) has promised a fresh new bill with Ben Franklin's likeness on it (that's 100 smackers, kiddo) when the scales show a twenty-pound loss! Now the way I figure, who can afford to eat when meat is costing $5.00 a pound? We'll keep you posted, and if it works, we'll let you know which of the crazy diets we tried!

THE LATEST REPORT: A Hip and a Hoopay for Messrs. Keatoff who have faith enough in the potential of this village to move into the heart of it! . . . one unpleasant thought occurred to me today, do you know we are already nine weeks behind in our Christmas Clubs? . . . Our hearty thanks to Mrs. John Gudel who volunteered for the mountainous task of finding Heart Fund solicitors. To make her job a little easier, if you feel a need to help somewhere in this world, why not give her a call and volunteer your services, she'll love you with all her heart!

NOTES TO YOU: The rumor-runners tell us that Bob Avery will be the new owner and operator of the Red Arrow Inn on Deep Lake Road. Here's to you, Bob! . . . If you were wondering (as I was) who on earth Hercules is up at Jacques & Georgia's Beauty Salon, it's a dawg! . . . And that takes care of the Salons and saloons for today. . . .

THE LAST DROP: Now that the Christmas street decorations have disappeared, we wonder if someone else will notice the sign on the Jay-Cee building that is slightly passé. . . . Weren't you surprised that your name wasn't in that select group of 20,000 to receive invitations to the Inaugural Ball in Springfield? . . . I was sure that you and I both were in the top 20. . . . In case January starts to get a little dull, scurry up and purchase some tickets for one of the nights still available for "Thurber's Carnival," being produced by the P.M.A.L.

DID YOU HEAR: Eraser, that's what the artist's wife said when she saw the gift he drew!

Peppy watches while Tina poses on her swing

Tina, A Canine Genius

If Tina were human—and watching her, you're likely to forget she isn't—she'd probably have an I.Q. of about 140. I don't know if anyone's ever found a way to measure doggie I.Q.'s, but Tina would certainly rate up there with the brightest.

Tina is a 17-month-old cocker spaniel owned and trained by Marmen Luciani, Rt. 3, Box 217, Antioch. She has a repertoire of tricks that would put a stage dog to shame, and she learned them all in one month, says her owner. And he has dated pictures to prove it.

Tina speaks, bows, stands on her hind legs. She swings on a small swing, and sits on her haunches while swinging. She jumps through graduated hoops on command. One of the hoops is so small you wonder how she slips through. She will also jump through a blazing hoop of fire.

She climbs a step ladder, walks a narrow board, and descends another ladder at the other end. With the aid of one of the numerous pieces of equipment Mr. Luciani has built, she slips into her own collar.

Carmen can call out a variety of names, and Tina remains mute until he speaks her name. Then she barks.

When Carmen cries, "dog-catcher," Tina dashes for the safety of her box, lifts the lid and slips in. She lies quiet in her hiding place till Carmen calls to her to come out. No amount of coaxing by anyone else, even Mrs. Luciani, will bring a response from Tina.

Perhaps the best example of Tina's disciplined obedience is her refusal to touch food until Carmen says, "All right, Tina." He can lay food in front of her and say, "Don't touch." She sits and eyes it stoically, until a command from Carmen lets her pick it up. Even then—and she can be already chewing the food—at a command to drop it, she obeys instantly. She heels instantly, sitting always on the left side of her master.

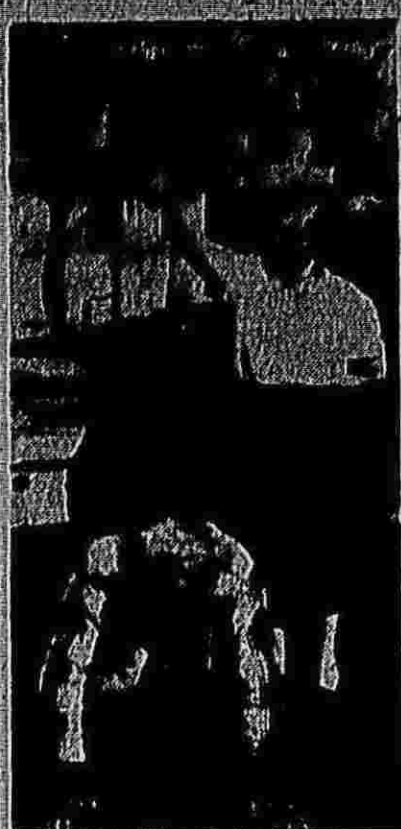

Carmen started teaching tricks to Tina when she was three months old. By the time she was four months old she'd mastered most of the tricks she does today.

How do you teach a dog tricks? "Patience, unending patience," Carmen says. "First you have to teach obedience. Dogs are as different as people. I never have to slap Tina—All I have to do is take off my slipper and she dashes for her box." He demonstrated.

"But Tina's very quick-learning, and wants to obey. I had a Doberman-Pinscher a few years ago—I had to keep her disciplined all the time."

That was when Carmen grew interested in dog-training—when he joined the Doberman-Pinscher Club in Chicago, where he lived at the time. He later sold the dog to Michael Flynn, the county clerk. The Lucianis moved to Channel Lake nine years ago. They'd owned their home here since 1949.

With retirement, Carmen finally bought Tina and trained her. He's now purchased Peppy, a yellow Cocker Spaniel—Tina's black. Peppy is a slow, deliberate, slow-moving dog, and slower

THE BACKYARD of the Luciani home is filled with equipment for Tina's workouts. Owner Carmen Luciani serves as a platform for his talented dog while Mrs. Luciani coaxes her into a sitting position.

All-Star & Old Fitz Teams To Match Pinfall

Bowlers who like to watch the high-scoring tenpin spiliers in operation will have a chance to see some of the best at the Antioch Bowl next Sunday, January 17, when the Old Fitzgerald team of Chicago meets the Antioch All-Stars in a three-game match.

The match will start at 1 p.m. No admission will be charged but a collection will be taken, with proceeds going to the Antioch Rescue Squad. with the loser making a sizeable donation to the charity fund. Identity of this year's pre-match bowlers has not yet been decided.

The Old Fitzgerald team consists of Les Zikes, Jr., Al Markle, Otto Niehaus, Carl Carlson and Ed Kawolice. Les Zikes and Carl Carlson may have to find a replacement if they qualify for the All-Star tournament this week.

The All-Star team will be the five top-average bowlers in the Antioch Major league, bowling on Friday night, with the sixth high as alternate. As of now, the top five are Truman Garretsen, with a 192 average; Dick Baker, 192; Harry Shank, 190; Ray Ho-

Frightens Prowler, And Vice Versa

When Mrs. Georgia Turner, Woodcrest subdivision, Channel Lake, tried to do a good turn by keeping an eye on summer homes of neighbors, she was chased and frightened by a prowler recently.

Mrs. Turner noticed a prowler loitering around two vacant neighboring homes which had previously been broken into. As she watched him, he walked on to an isolated vacant home about a block away on the channel bank and disappeared around the house.

Deciding to follow him, Mrs. Turner went next door and told a neighbor of her intention. She walked down to the house, owned by Mrs. Geraldine Tano and Mrs. Val Tatar.

When she walked around the corner of the house, she found a man trying to pry the screen off the window with a hammer. When the man started toward her, she turned and ran with the prowler in pursuit. Her neighbor, a Mr. Briedell, was waiting on the porch as she neared her home, and the prowler disappeared.

Sheriff's police failed to find anyone in the neighborhood answering Mrs. Turner's description of the prowler.

The lecturer then rose to speak. "Ladies and gentlemen," he said, "I'm not half so big a fool as the chairman"—he paused and again there was loud laughter—"would have you suppose."

Sure.

You might find another car as new as the Delta 88.

But not this year.

This is Oldsmobile's Delta 88. It's unique. Unique because it's new. New clear through. Styling is new. So new, not a line nor a highlight was borrowed from last year. Power plant is new. Super Rocket V-8 is the biggest in Olds history: 426-cubic-inches big, up to 370-horse strong. Transmission is new, too. Turbo Hydra-Matic, available on any Delta 88, provides up to 40% more torque from a standing start, superlative performance at all speeds. New styling. New engine. New transmission. This year, only Delta 88 lets you have all three, all new. Other cars have a lot of catching up to do.

Wedding Vows Solemnized At St. Peters Church

Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Carney of Antioch announce the marriage of their daughter, Barbara Anne, to Robert Wozniak, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Wozniak of Antioch, during the Holiday Season.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. Alfred J. Henderson, of St. Peter's Church in Antioch.

Sister of the bride, Mrs. J. K. Larson of Antioch was the matron of honor, and Mr. Donald Mentone of Antioch was the best man. The bridesmaids were Ann Herman of Antioch, Ardath Coleman of Oak Park, and Sandra Forsberg of Des Plaines.

The groomsmen were Theodore Wozniak of Antioch, brother of the groom, Charles Wolf of Fox Lake, and Richard Wolf of Antioch. The ushers were Neal Carney and William Carney, brothers of the bride. The soloist was Anthony Calzaretta of DeKalb; organist, Joan Cervinka of Antioch.

The bride wore the traditional gown of white satin with the princess line. The bodice was of chantilly lace with a sabrina neckline, and chapel length train. The illusion veil was topped with a white satin rose.

The matron of honor and the bridesmaids all wore red tulle sheath dresses, with an overcoat of red velvet, with elbow length sleeves. The headpieces were designed by Joyce Stone of Park Forest.

The bouquets were all of white feathered mums with holly and silver trim.

A reception was held in their honor at the J. F. Kennedy Memorial Hall in Waukegan.

After a honeymoon in Nassau, the couple will reside in Woodstock. The groom is a graduate student at Northern Illinois University. The bride, also a graduate of Northern Illinois University, will continue teaching at an elementary school at Wonder Lake.

OLD EAGLE EYE SAYS—
Well, well! Here it is Thursday again. Suppose all the residents of Antioch will be rushing to the postoffice for the town "sheet." Hope they won't be disappointed with the contents. Never can tell about these Antioch people, though. Maybe they will and maybe they won't. Fact is however they have the paper and all its contents thereof. True?

Dick Allner, Walter Scott and Mike Depner spend a great deal of time discussing bowling. One thing is certain—they can't rave to their friends about the wonderful scores they make because the truth is bound to come out in the News. Publicity has its bad points, eh?

Saw Elizabeth Touton (now Mrs. Carl Anderson), second grade teacher, going down the street. Looked as if half of the children of the school had crowded around her. Strange how children like to walk with the teacher. And the number of children who go by the News office with flowers or fruit for their teachers—well, it is surprising! Each child probably feels as proud as if he were carrying a basket of jewels to the queen of England.

So long! Be careful what you do. See you next Thursday.

Well, Christmas is over, but one would scarcely know it to look around Antioch, for there are still wreaths in the windows, Christmas trees on display, cotton and arti-cial snow in evidence, and other dashes of the holiday season. And do you suppose artificial wreaths will be seen grinning at the back windows of automobiles up until the Fourth of July when an American flag may be submitted.

There is still a lot in this world to be thankful for, and one of the greatest blessings is that the members of our flapper clan no longer wear the high, black, four-buckle galoshes which were left flapping.

PROPERTY OWNERS ARE DEADLOCKED ON WHITE WAY PROJECT

"Hopefully deadlocked"—these words just about describe the situation in Antioch regarding the proposed white way, and the difference of opinion also extends to the matter of putting through additional streets and alleys near the business district of the village.

These facts were brought out Thursday night at a dinner at the Antioch Hotel where about forty property owners and interested persons were assembled at the invitation of Herbert J. Vos, Antioch lumberman and member of the finance committee of the village board.

While the exact nature of the meeting was not disclosed in the invitations sent out by Mr. Vos, it was generally surmised that the "white way" or some right-of-way project was to be brought before the meeting.

When the meeting was called to order Mr. Vos quickly confirmed the rumors about the white way being the purpose of calling the group together, stating that the time has come to settle the question or forget it.

"Village board seeks the sentiment of Main street property owners," Mr. Vos said, "and now is the time for each one to vote his opinion regarding the improvement." The meeting was then turned over to the President Mr. Pollock who acted as chairman during the session.

Companies Pledge Their Cooperation

Theo. Blech, district superintendent of the Public Service Company gave assurance that the company's poles would be removed from Main street at any time the village would furnish a right of way for their lines on the east and west sides of Main st., stating that he would get this promise confirmed in writing by the company's officials, if such a document was required.

T. A. Loftus, acting superintendent of the Illinois Bell Telephone company, pledged the co-operation of his company in working with the village and the Public Service company in removing poles and lines from Main Street.

A standing vote of the question "shall an ornamental lighting system be installed?" showed a divided house, objectors stated that there was no use in having a white way as long as Main street was cluttered up with unsightly poles and wires.

Then the question was revised to include the provision of having the poles removed and another vote was taken. Five property owners voted "no." So it seems that there are property owners who will oppose the improvement under any conditions.

It was explained that the cost of installation would be approximately $2.50 per front foot, and that the cost of operation would be about $150 per month over the present cost of lighting Antioch's streets.

A petition for the improvement was signed by several property owners after the meeting.

Streets and Alleys Also in Dispute

The matter of new streets and alleys was also discussed, but it was found impossible to propose a plan that would meet with the unanimous approval of property owners.

Property owners must appreciate the efforts of the village council in trying to work out improvement problems to the satisfaction of all concerned. It is a very commendable attitude. Lack of funds has been a handicap during the year, otherwise many of the difficulties in the way of improvements would have been removed, and it would have been a simple matter for the board to decide what was best to be done.

The Great Plague of London reached its climax in 1665. More than 150,000 persons died of the plague in London between 1603 and 1665.

Live Portrayal Of War Of Sexes

By J. E. Chandler

Male members of the species humanitas, fail not to see the satirical skills from "The Thurber Carnival" this weekend at the PM&L Theatre. You owe it to mankind, you own self respect, and the continuation of your own connubial bliss, not even considering the therapeutic value to be gained from these hilarious comedy sketches for your insipid ulcers and/or psychosomatic condition.

In the continuous thousands of years war between the sexes, Mr. James Thurber is our champion, our general and chief-of-staff combined. For the past few generations our forces have been in retreat. Lately we appear to be in a complete rout. It is high time we rally around and make a stand. It isn't necessary that we hasten to the barricades, man the trenches, or release the guided missiles. Neither brute resource nor the application of science and technology is the answer to our difficulties. Our only resource is in the realm of imagination.

Who knows what flights of fancy our imaginations may engender from a front-and-center (even back in the balcony) seat at these stage productions? We might out-Mitty Walter in valorous fanciful accomplishments. Guided by Thurber's fancy, imagination is boundless.

And as the thought frequently precedes the deed, some of our imaginings may come to pass. It's not likely that we'll find a mythical beast like the unicorn browsing among the tulips or nipping at the lilies in our gardens, especially at this season of the year; but our helpmates might decide through a sense of chivalry or—more realistically—ESP to ask our advice on such a matter as the family budget or the rearing of children—then take it!

You will see such famous sketches as "The Night, the Bed Fell," "Unicorn in the Garden," "Gentlemen Shoppers," "Secret Life of Walter Mitty," and "File and Forget," plus the thought-provoking "The Last Flower." The cast includes favorite veteran actors you will remember from past PM&L productions along with some equally talented newcomers. They are Don Beveroth, Al Bucar, Louise Camp, Don Cardiff, Gloria Davis, Gerri Duncan, E. Truman Garrett, Joset Hunley, Marie Jasen, Larry Landis, Valerie McElroy, Arnold Schulmeister and Betty Smouse. "A Thurber Carnival" is being directed by Ken Smouse. The listenable, foot-tapping rhythms of Jim Kopriva, Joe Kanka, Bill Brook, and Bob Soukup under the baton of George Olsar provide the musical entertainment.

A special added attraction is an art exhibit by Rosalie Lyons in the lobby and corridors of the theatre. It is an exhibit in creative design representing her first semester's work at the Kenosha branch of the University of Wisconsin.

Tickets may be reserved for the January 15, 16 and 22 performances by phoning 395-3013. January 23 date has been sold out.

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

THOSE CONTROVERSIAL BIRTH CONTROL PILLS

Are birth control pills dangerous? Do they permanently destroy a woman's ability to have children? Can they cause cancer, heart trouble and other serious diseases?

These questions—voiced by the press and public ever since birth control pills became available—make this new class of drugs one of the most controversial medical discoveries of the century.

To fully appreciate the answers to these questions, it is necessary to know exactly how the birth control pill works. Essentially it resembles a natural substance called progesterone. This substance—elaborated and discharged by the ovary after it has released an egg—helps to prepare the uterus as a "nest" for the egg in anticipation of its fertilization and growth.

When birth control pills are given before the ovary releases an egg, the woman's entire reproductive system undergoes kind of artificial "suspension." Although the uterus lining changes as it would when natural progesterone is discharged, no egg is released. Furthermore, it cannot be released as long as the pills are taken regularly making it impossible for conception to take place.

At first there was concern that suspension of a woman's reproductive cycle in this way might permanently impair her ability to have children, even after she stopped taking the pills.

Surprisingly, the opposite is true.

Many wives who were considered infertile before taking the pills promptly became pregnant after they stopped taking them. Scientists attribute this fact to a "rebound" characteristic of the pills which frequently acts to rejuvenate and revitalize the inefficient female reproductive system.

It is also surprising that birth control pills can actually aid conception in certain cases of chronic abortion. In women who constantly abort because of a natural deficiency of progesterone hormone the pills are taken immediately after the egg is released and are continued throughout pregnancy.

In these cases, they supplant the natural deficiency of progesterone substance and keep the uterus lining intact for proper growth of the fetus. Because of their powerful regulatory effect on the female reproductive cycle, doctors frequently prescribe birth control pills to correct a variety of menstrual disorders, especially painful, prolonged or irregular periods. Currently, the pills are being tested for use in certain cases of pimples and other skin problems associated with hormone imbalance in women.

Since the birth control pill was first tested in 1955, an estimated 50 million women from all over the world have taken them for prolonged periods—sometimes for years—without ill effects. Although some cases of hardening of the arteries and even cancer were reported in conjunction with their administration, exhaustive investigation has shown these problems to be coincidental.

If you are among the millions of women taking birth control pills under the direction of a physician, you may do so with complete confidence. Despite the occasional shadows of skepticism that have fallen over this new drug, overwhelming scientific evidence bears out that it can promote as well as prevent conception—and do both jobs safely and effectively.

III. Bell Reports Progress In '64

Introduction of new services, improvement of existing services, reductions in rates—these are the ingredients of 1964 that made for a year of progress in communications according to Illinois Bell Telephone Manager, Dick Miller.

Plans for an exciting new service, Touch-Tone, where ten buttons replace the familiar dial, introduced to Antioch Monday (Jan. 11) were finalized late in 1964, and a new, faster way of dialing from coin telephones was made effective last month.

Main advantages of Touch-Tone include speed, ease and convenience in calling, because you tap buttons instead of twirling a dial and waiting for it to spin back. The new coin phone service is fast, too, because phone users can dial direct to Chicago and most suburbs by simply dialing the number. An operator comes on the line only to ask for additional coins if necessary.

Two rate reductions were announced in 1964, the first in August cutting the cost of color phones to $4, eliminating the one-time charge on the Bell China and reducing the cost of the two-line family plan. The other is reduction in long distance interstate calling rates for calls after 8 p.m. daily, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. daily, and all day Saturday and Sunday, that is expected to save $7 million annually for Illinois Bell customers. About three-fourths of the reductions are effective February 1, 1965, the remainder later in the year. This brings the long distance savings for Illinois customers to $12 million since 1959, Miller said.

DEATH NOTICES

PAUL MILLER

Infant Paul Miller, 4½ months old of Antioch, passed away on Sunday, January 10, at 915 a.m. in Victory Memorial Hospital after a short illness. He was born August 21, 1964, in Waukegan.

Survivors are the parents, Leslie H. and Barbara Ann Miller, Antioch; one brother, Timothy Patrick Miller, one sister, Laura Ann Miller (both at home); the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, Antioch; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gutowski, Sr., Antioch. He was preceded in death by his twin brother, John Matthew, on August 22, 1964.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Strang Funeral Home in Antioch. Rev. Alfred Henderson of St. Peter's church will officiate at the services. Interment is in Mount Carmel Cemetery at Antioch.

"hearing" on phones is nearly 100% complete, the manager said. Nearly all customers with "old-style" phones now have the new "500" sets in the Antioch exchange area where access could be gained by telephone installers. Regional "after-hour" repair centers to insure fast service any time of day or night have been established and more buried cable has been installed to protect service and keep neighborhoods neat.

This year's improved telephone directory will contain a new section of Antioch local area listings, which will be easier to read because it will be in larger print. The listings in the present regional directory will be placed in the back of the directory behind the Yellow Pages. These listings will be printed in larger type in 1966.

To provide these many services, Illinois Bell and its Bell System manufacturing and supply arm, the Western Electric Co., pumped nearly one-half million dollars into the economy of the Antioch area. Total wage payments amounted to $373,000, property taxes more than $15,000, purchases by the Western Electric Company about $9,000 and miscellaneous local payments including rent and revenue shared with businesses having coin phone contracts amounted to almost $80,000.

Don't Be A Quitter

When you are young, one, two, three or four years seem like forever. You might think that if you continue in school for another year, life will stop and you won't have another good time. This of course is not true because life goes on and in later years you realize that the time spent in school was the happiest time of your life.

Because you have grown some and because you have the stature and physical abilities of a full-grown man or woman, you may think that you can cope with life and a job just like an adult—but it takes schooling and experience. Now is the time for your schooling. The better your education the better you will be fitted for life.

When an employer chooses an employee he is anxious to know how the person got along at what he did up until this point. If you can say you are a high school graduate or that you are through with one, two, three or four years of college, your chances of getting a job will improve up to 100 per cent.

What odds there are!! Your chance of getting a job when you are a drop out is almost zero.

Make up your mind today. IT IS LATER THAN YOU THINK.—Bridgeport News.

HOW TO GET MORE FUN OUT OF HOME MOVIES

by Skip Miller

A LIVING FAMILY ALBUM

A child's first steps. The handshake that said goodbye on the first day of school. That first black eye. Conquering a bucking bicycle. The first religious service of importance to our youngster. Roller skating. The first date. Graduation. Marriage. A grandchild's first steps.

How many of those precious memories can you relive tonight?

Or were you one of those who knew there would be plenty of time to take such precious pictures . . . tomorrow? Strange, isn't it, that tomorrow never came?

Probably the most significant comment made by people who finally do get started taking precious family memories in living color is "Why didn't we start this long ago?"

The only answer is human frailty, the common denominator of procrastination. Too many of us put off until tomorrow that which we should be doing today.

The time is now. The way is, fortunately, an easy, simple and economical step in the direction of color film. Nothing else is needed to capture those memories. Once captured, we'll exercise human ingenuity, finding a way to enjoy the memories again and again. But the important thing is to capture them, now, today, before they get away.

Movies are a family affair. Every one gathers in the rumpus room, den or living room to see Dad making that long drive on the golf course, or Junior in action on the scrub football team. We enjoy, over and over, watching Sis delivering the smashing serve that clinched the final game and match in the tournament. Mom actually chuckles when she watches herself stuffing the traditional Thanksgiving Turkey. Truly, movies weld the bonds of family ties closer and closer to gether. They make us forget the trials and tribulations of today's battle of living . . . while we watch the intimate and pleasurable memories of yesterday. If a tiny fraction of the money in her hands, we would have to be that is invested in activities that Dad, any second now.

Sequoit Cagers Move Into First-Place Tie

Antioch scored 21 points in the second quarter of their game with Ela-Vernon Friday night and went on to register their fourth conference victory 74 to 59, on Ela's court.

The Sequoits trailed after the first quarter 14 to 12 but finally solved the pressing zone defense of the Bears and led 33 to 26 at half-time.

Behind the scoring of 8 foot 8 center Vic Rogers, Antioch poured in 26 points in the final stanza and settled all doubts as to the outcome. Rogers racked up 30 points for his night's work on 11 baskets and 8 free throws.

Turnovers and mechanical mistakes plagued the Sequoits through much of the game but good performances by two reserves, Tom Blackman and Wally Henning, made the difference.

Henning dumped in 8 baskets and did a good job on defense holding Tim Harkness to two baskets in the second half working out of a zone defense. Blackman scored 12 points and picked off 13 rebounds. Rogers followed in rebounding with 12.

Antioch hit on 20 of 54 attempts from the field for 36% and 16 of 30 at the charity line for 53%. Ela had 21 of 70 and 17 of 25 free throws. The Sequoits dominated the boards with a 47 to 20 rebounding edge.

Antioch will have a double weekend coming up as they host Grayslake Friday and then go to Wauconda Saturday. The Sequoits are tied for first place in the Northwest Conference with Grant by virtue of Grant's loss to Ela-Vernon Saturday night.

The Sequoits will be without two of their players this weekend as Bob Schmitz will be out due to illness and Mike Kelly has been lost due to scholastic ineligibility. Coach Roger Andrews announced that Antioch has received their contract to play in the Rockford classic again next year. "The Rockford tournament officials were well pleased with our performance and the attendance of Antioch fans during the tourney this past holiday," Andrews said.

News of Lakesports

VIC ROGERS (55) dumps in two more in spite of the efforts of two Ela-Vernon defenders. Rogers paced the Sequoits in their victory Friday night with 30 points.

Sequoit Squads Score Mat Victory

The Antioch wrestling squads emerged victorious Saturday in a thrill-packed meet with Ela-Vernon. The parents of the wrestlers attended the meet as guests of the school as part of a Parents Day program. A demonstration was given to show some of the more common maneuvers in high school wrestling and the point scoring system was explained before the meet began.

The varsity, see-sawed back and forth with the team scored tied on five different occasions and never more than three points apart until the end of the match. The team score was tied 17 to 17 going into the Heavyweight bout where Stan Revell pinned his Ela-Vernon opponent in 1:41 to win the meet for Antioch. Winners for Antioch were:

Masaji Okubo (103), John Jedele (120), John Sheppard (127), Jim Sheppard (133), Brad Ipsen (165), John Patterson (180), and Stan Revell (Hwt.).

The Sophomore match was also in doubt going in the Heavyweight match with Ela leading 24 to 20. Sophomore Heavyweight Howard Zimmerman pinned his opponent to win the match for Antioch 25 to 24.

Sophomore winners were Guy DeFalco (95), Tan To-man (103), Jim Price (133), Charles Powell (145), Don Miller (165), and Howard Zimmerman (Hwt.).

The Freshman wrestling squad won their meet against Ela to make it a clean sweep. The final score was 38 to 18 with Antioch winning 8 weight classes, losing 3, and forfeiting 1. Winners for Antioch were Tony Haber (95), Bill Effinger (103), Bill Revell (112), Brian Lade-wig (120), Bob Edwards (127), Mike Wells (138), Bill Nader (154), and Lynn Robinson (180).

The Freshmen are now undefeated in five meets.

Tom Sarbacker and Jim Effinger, Lake Villa; Raymond Kantola, Waukegan; Mary Hook and Mary Knowles, Gurnee; Arthur House, Zion; Joe Palermo and Richard Schneider, Great Lakes; Estelle Clark, Evanston; Arla Sanko, Westmont; Adrian Zimmerman, Ingleside; Bill Curley, Mundelein; Bob Gray, Gages Lake; Jackie Klingner and Joanne Pluss, Elgin; Tom Meyer, Carpentersville; Val Malone, N. River; side; Lillian Buehik, Brookfield; R. Walbaum, Barrington; Viola O'Deen, Carol Metz, Chester Szyzka, Ed Kroll, Bob Tednes, Sid Groner, Tom King, Shirley Schmitz, Conrad Petersen, and Lloyd Brown, all Chicago.

Wally Henning, a forward on the Sequoit basketball squad, is this week's Sequoit of the Week.

Wally is 18 years old, lives at 963 Victoria St., and is a senior at Antioch High. He's studying English, Woodshop, Government, Social Problems, Law and Speech II this year.

After graduation, he plans to attend Eastern University, then Police School. He wants to be a Physical Education teacher, a coach or a policeman.

His hobby is hunting, and his taste in foods is all-encompassing—he likes everything except liver.

Wally made an excellent showing in last week's game against Ela-Vernon. He played most of the second half, and scored 16 points and picked off 6 Sequoit rebounds. Vic Rogers was the only Sequoit to out-score him last Friday.

In addition, he held Tim Harkness, outstanding Ela guard, to two baskets for the second half. Tim had racked up five baskets and two free throws in the first half.

GOOD DEAL
The dilapidated old car cased up to the toll bridge. "Seventy cents," said the attendant.

"No sir," was the serious response. "You gotta look at it."

Soph's Early Lead Wiped Out By Ela

Coach Bruce Stahmer's sophomore squad continued to have their troubles Friday night as they dropped their game with Ela-Vernon 60 to 45 after leading 26 to 18 at the half.

Playing on the winner's court, Ela-Vernon battled back from a 10 point first half deficit to out-score the Sequoit preps 16 to 6 in the third period and then exploded for 20 points in the final stanza.

"We just ran out of steam," coach Stahmer said. "We tried to press them as much as possible but we just couldn't keep up. Denny Clark was suffering with a sore foot and wasn't at top strength and this hurt us some," Stahmer added.

The Sequoits hit 10 of 18 free throws for 55% and 18 of 56 attempts from the field for 32%. "I think that Ela along with Lake Forest are the two top soph clubs in the conference this year. That long Christmas lay-off didn't help, either," he added.

"The boys are coming around now," Stahmer said. "I think we'll reverse some of our first round losses." He cited the Grant and Warren games particularly.

Statistics for the last six games showed Leonard Clark leading in point totals with 70 followed by Don Zeman with 61. Other top scorers were Bill Sheldon, 34, Jim Litchfield 32, Fred Gras 24, and Marney Baker with 10.

Clark also leads in rebounding with 52 followed by Gras with 42 and Zeman with 36.

Record Crowd At Ice Derby

Attendance at the annual Ice-Fishing Derby of the Northern Illinois Conservation Club broke all records last Sunday.

Clear skies and a warming sun added impetus to the migration of ice-fishing fans to Channel Lake. The additional lure of over one hundred prizes, both for fish caught and non-fishing contests, added to the attraction, bringing 3,000 people to try their luck.

Largest fish of the day honors went to H. Hangebrauck, Winthrop Harbor, for coming up with a 3.28 pound largemouth bass measuring 17.6 inches. He also copped 2nd place honors with a 14-inch black bass. The third place gonfalon was nailed by Jerry Dingrando, Chicago, with an 11.2 inch bass.

Disputing Hangebrauck's claim for the largest fish was Ray Walker, 940 N. Kedvale Ave., Chicago, who landed a 37 inch northern pike tipping the beam at an even 12 pounds. Because there is no open season for taking this species through the ice, Walker had to return his trophy-fish to the water; and to add to his injured feelings, got no prize for his efforts, since there were no prizes allocated for northern pike. The NICC is trying to correct this situation for Walker and the other ice fishermen by petitioning for an open season for this fish in line with state fisheries biologist Bruce Muench's recommendation, following last year's comprehensive survey of the Chain of Lakes. Oldest fisherman on the ice was a grandmother, Mary Hook, Gurnee. Judges of entries were: Bruce Muench, Gregg Tichacek, and Lloyd Leable, all from the department of conservation. THREE THOUSAND PEOPLE swarmed on to the ice of Channel Lake for last Sunday's Ice-Fishing Derby, conducted by the NICC. This picture was taken from the bridge at the south end of the lake.

Sequoit Frosh Lose In Double Overtime

The Antioch Frosh-soph squad suffered their fourth defeat in 9 games Tuesday afternoon when they lost to Conant 51 to 48 in a double overtime at Antioch.

The frosh will meet Grayslake Saturday, January 16, in their next game. Tony Barnett was the leading scorer for the Sequoits in the Conant game with 12 points. He was followed by Greg Drije and 8.

MATTER OF TIME

A man was seated on a train beside a boy who was proudly playing with a cheap watch.

Does you watch tell the time, sonny?" inquired the man with an indulgent smile. "No sir," was the serious response. "You gotta look at it."

B.B. Warns Against Name Referral Deal

Read your contract carefully if you are offered a color television set for $100 and the names of six friends who will go for the same deal, warns the Better Business Bureau of Metropolitan Chicago, Inc.

Regardless of what the salesman says, according to A. B. Johnston, Executive Vice-President of Better Business Bureau of Metropolitan Chicago, Inc., you become obligated for several hundred dollars, perhaps $1000 or more when you sign your name to the contract currently employed in this referral selling technique.

This plan of selling depends for success on gullibility and perhaps the eternal hope of getting something for nothing. It may even sound logical. Nevertheless over a period of time, the Better Business Bureau has received hundreds of complaints from members of the public who have been duped into believing they could get some article for a fraction of its usual price by supply-ing names of friends willing to make a similar deal.

The average purchaser's first reaction to referral sell-ing may be favorable because its deceptive aspects are not immediately apparent. The salesman usually claims that if you supply the names of friends also willing to accept this wonderful deal, it will cost you little or nothing. The same deal will likewise be made to them.

This operation is similar to the chain letter and is mathe-matically impossible of full execution. Literature con-cerning such propositions is considered unmailable by the postoffice department due to deceptive nature in deluding victims into signing contracts for large amounts.

Even if it were possible to provide additional buyers, and thus earn commissions, such representations are not incorporated into the contract. A separate instrument may be given containing such promises. Nevertheless this document has no bearing upon and does not lessen the obligation of the person sign-ing the contract.

Further information can be obtained on any proposi-tion of this nature by con-tacting the Better Business Bureau of Metropolitan Chi-cago, Inc.

Philadelphia was the first city in North America to in-stall street lighting poles made entirely of nickel stain-less steel. One-piece light standards of long-lasting nickel stainless steel were erected in front of Philadel-phia's city hall in early 1964.

Re-Live Gold Rush Days In Scouts Derby

The third annual Klondike Derby, sponsored by the Northwest District of the Boy Scouts of America, will be held Jan. 23 at McArthur Woods in Lake County's Forest Preserve District.

The Derby is the big out-door event of the Scouts win-ter season. The events are patterned after the methods used to live and travel in the frozen wastelands of Alaska in the time of the gold rush. Scout Patrols from most of the Troops in the District will compete in such scout-craft skills as First Aid, Ice Rescue, Fire Building, Tent Pitching and others. The projects will be carried out at stations set up along the trail.

Each patrol able to com-plete the project will be awarded a gold nugget and then move on to the next sta-tion and project. Awards other than gold nuggets will include individual seg-ments and leather necker-chief slides, to be awarded to each participant. Each pa-trol will receive a participa-tion ribbon.

Adding to the challenge, each patrol must build their own sled, comparable to a dog sled, on which they will carry their equipment and one member of the patrol. One scout pushes while the rest pull. The sleds must be built to certain specifications since they will be required to travel over about three miles of rough country, snow or no snow. A patrol must have at least five members, but not more than eight.

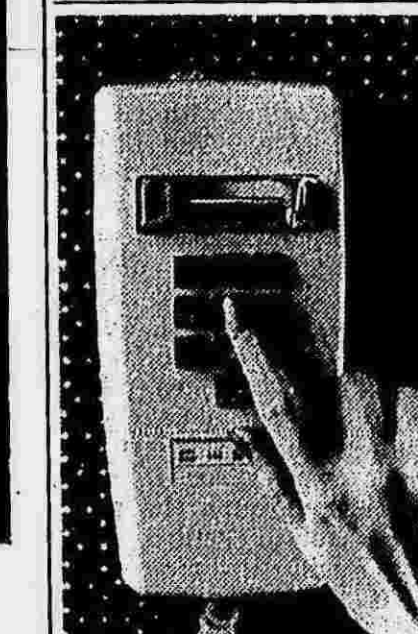

The public is invited to at-tend this event. Members of the Order of the Arrow will be on hand to serve hot dogs, coffee and hot choco-late.

ISU Admission Deadline Jan. 25

NORMAL, ILL.— Applica-tions for admission to Illinois State University with the opening of the new semester starting February 1 must be filed by 5 p.m. Monday, Janu-ary 25. This deadline ap-plies to all prospective stu-dents wishing to enter ISU in February, whether or not they have previously attend-ed the university, unless they are now in school here.

Applications for admission or readmission to ISU may be secured by writing to or stopping at the Office of Ad-missions and Records, Illi-nois State University, Nor-mal, Ill.

Touch-Tone® telephoning comes to Antioch!

Be among the first to enjoy it... the phone that lets you tap out numbers instead of dialing. It's faster, easier, fun!

Just tap the buttons. No dialing. You can tap out a number twice as fast as you can dial. And each time you tap, you hear a pleasant musical sound—a different one for each button. TOUCH-TONE calling is not only practical. It's a lot of fun.

And the cost is surprisingly low. For TOUCH-TONE service in your home, you pay a one-time installation charge of $5.00 for each TOUCH-TONE line, and a monthly charge of $1.50—plus tax—for TOUCH-TONE service. The monthly charge covers TOUCH-TONE service and color for all extensions on your line.

TOUCH-TONE telephones are available in a variety of styles: versatile table set, new streamlined wall phone, and attractive Princess® model. The usual additional charges apply for extension and Princess® phones, and special equipment.

TOUCH-TONE service will be extended into other communities as changes can be made in telephone central office equipment. But it's available here now!

Order TOUCH-TONE service today. Call your Service Representative, or ask your telephone man.

TOUCH-TONE telephones are on display at these Antioch locations: State Bank of Antioch, 934 Main; Antioch Savings and Loan Assn., 425 Lake; First National Bank, 946 Main.

If your telephone num-ber begins with 395 or 396, you can place your order now for exciting new TOUCH-TONE service. Just call your Illinois Bell Service Representative at 395-9981, or ask your tele-phone man.

MOOSE TOPICS

By Lillian Birdsall

The Child Care Committee presented their chapter night program at the meeting held at the Moose Home last Thursday evening. Entertainment for the evening consisted of a brief history on the story of Mooseheart presented by co-workers Jane Meyer, Shirley Gehris, Mildred Strober, Evelyn Miller, Lillian Birdsall, Gertrude Good and Harriet Grewe.

Three candidates, Irene Brylinke, sponsored by Alice Young, Elaine Tarczynski, sponsored by Marge Hartman and Helen Jakob, sponsored by Lillian Birdsall, were enrolled as new members.

In spite of the heavy fog that existed that night, we were honored by visiting guests, Muriel Thompson and her mother, Petra Milner, members of the Des Plaines Chapter No. 835.

A meeting of the officers will be held at the home of Rosemary Hadley, Thursday, January 14, at 7:30 p.m.

There will be a regular business meeting at the Moose Home for the WOTM Thursday, Jan. 21, at 8 p.m. and on Thursday, Jan. 28, there will be a ritual practice.

and all members are urged to attend.

The Midwinter Conference will be held at Harvard Sunday, Jan. 31, and chapters from Woodstock, McHenry, Fox Lake, Harvard and Antioch will be attending. All members from the Antioch Chapter who are attending are asked to be present at the Moose Home at 10:30 a.m., at which time a bus hired to transport the members is scheduled to leave.

Marge Hartman, chairman of the Library Committee reports that she and members of her committee paid a visit to the Lake County General Hospital in Waukegan and gave bouquets of artificial flowers to the patients.

The Third District Vice-Presidents' dinner of the Illinois Moose Association will take place at the Zion-Benton Moose Lodge, Saturday evening, Jan. 16, at 7 p.m. All Moose members and their women are invited to attend.

The Antioch Legion of the Moose will have a get-together at the Moose Home Sunday, Jan. 17, at 4:30 p.m. A business meeting will be held followed by a pot-luck dinner and entertainment which will be furnished by Gert Good.

Three members of the Antioch Moose Lodge, Gordon Wells, Morris Bown and Arthur Andersen attended the Third District meeting held at the Fox Lake Moose home last Saturday evening. A business meeting was held, followed by a smorgasbord.

The District Ritual competition will take place at the Harvard Moose Lodge Sunday, January 24, at 9 p.m.

The Regional will be held at the Elgin Moose Lodge, Sunday, Feb. 14.

Sermon At Christian Science Churches

The way in which the immortality of life becomes a reality for every individual will be explored in the Lesson-Sermon at all Christian Science churches this Sunday. The subject is "Life," and it is keyed by the Golden Text from Galatians (6:8): "He that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting."

The theme is amplified by this passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Being is holiness, harmony, immortality. It is already proved that a knowledge of this, even in small degree, will uplift the physical and moral standard of mortals, will increase longevity, will purify, and elevate character. Thus progress will finally destroy all error, and bring immortality to light." (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 492).

Night School Opens At North Chicago

Registration for adult evening school classes at North Chicago High School will officially open Monday, January 18, from 8 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in the board room. Registrations are also taken by phone and mail. Classes will begin the first week of February.

There are 137 adult courses offered in the Spring catalog. Twenty of these courses are new to the curriculum.

For further information about these and any other adult education courses at North Chicago High School, contact Mr. Rohling, Director of Adult Education.

Jobs Available At Downey Hospital

Dr. W. W. Bourke, Director of the Downey Veterans Hospital, announces an urgent need for qualified occupational and physical therapist, clinical social workers, and psychologists.

Downey is a 2487-bed neuropsychiatric hospital for veterans located on Buckley Road adjacent to the Great Lakes Naval Training Center.

Persons interested in the hospital may contact the Placement Officer, Veterans Administration Hospital, or telephone Ontario 2-1900, Extension 425.

ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

BABY'S EYES

By Dr. Bernard Kushner, President Vision Conservation Institute

The human eye seems to be one of Mother Nature's favorite and outstanding creations. It has more than 100,000,000 parts and is infinitely more complex than anything made by man.

JUVENILE OFFENDERS IN MONTANA

The sovereign state of Montana has abandoned the juvenile court system whereby young and fragile offenders are shielded from public gaze while their peccadilloes are weighed in judicial seclusion. Montana has found that the public glare, as the names of parents appear in print along with their delinquents, is salutary, if not on the malefactor, at least on the parents. Juvenile depredation is on the wane.

anything made by man.

Because the eye is so complex, its intricate parts become differentiated early in the unborn child. Three months before a baby is born, he is blinking his eyelids and is moving his eyes much as he will when he begins to explore the world of light in a few weeks.

However, vision needs time for growth after birth. A child's eyes must be developed for all the wonderful seeing tasks that two eyes working together with the brain can perform.

At birth, the part of the eye on which clearest vision depends is not fully developed. Only time brings about development.

As if these practical functions were not enough, eyes must also be beautiful. Your baby is born with blue eyes. But the color will change by the accumulation of pigment in a coating over the iris, if he is destined to be brown-eyed for instance.

There can be endless fascination in watching a baby progress from one stage to another as he learns to see and get meaning out of the information that his eyes gather so avidly. At first, a baby checks everything with his mouth, as if he didn't trust his eyes. What an achievement it is when he develops hand-eye coordination, when his eyes can guide his hand or foot.

You can watch your child build what optometrists call his space world.

As you would expect, he is the center of it. At first, he has little awareness of anything beyond his arms' length. Slowly, the space expands. He learns what and where the objects are that his eyes see. This is a developmental process involving not only his eyes, but his whole being. Eye doctors point out that baby first explores this exploding world with his right hand, foot and eye. Then, in turn, will come a period of concentration on the left. Soon this cycle is repeated and growth and development take place.

Optometrists find that for the first few months, one eye may be turned under the nose or "crossed" as it is commonly described. At this time, baby is using the other eye. There is nothing to be concerned about at this time.

St. Scholastica Church in Bristol, Wis., is having its fifth annual Men's Night Dinner, Monday, Feb. 15, at the Church Hall, 3 miles south of Bristol, 1 block west of Highway 45 on "V".

Bowling Party

Twenty-five couples attended the bowling party at the Antioch Bowl Saturday night, sponsored by the Lindenhurst Men's and Women's Club. Only 38 couples bowled while the rest cheered them on. Mementoes of the night were awarded to Dudley and Shirley Mertes for the best bowling couple. High scorers were Paul Ireland and Helen Gilson. Low scorers were Zenia Neumann and George Zaneck.

Men's Club Meeting

Approximately 30 members attended last Thursday night's meeting of the Lindenhurst Men's Club.

Superintendent Melvin Colbert spoke to the men about the need for a school in Lake Villa. He explained why it couldn't be built in Lindenhurst where most of the children would be attending. Only grades 6 through 8 would be attending. Later on it would be used for a Junior High school.

Ray Parpan is making arrangements for a hockey trip on March 7 at the Stadium in Chicago. Any man in Lake Villa Township who would like to go with them should contact Ray or Doug.

The mortgage on the civic center is down to around $11,000. Monies paying off the mortgage, insurance, telephone, water, gas, electric, upkeep comes from the rental of the building.

The building which was dedicated Sept. 16, 1961, has been put to good use for scouting activities, teen age and adult club meetings, Junior police activities, and Saturday movies, card parties, rummage sales, style shows, and other fund raising events. It also served as a temporary meeting place for St. Mark Lutheran Church and the First Baptist Church. Anytime a meeting place is needed for civic activities the center is available free of charge.

Women's Club Meeting

The new officers of the Lindenhurst Women's Club will be installed at the Thursday, Jan. 14 meeting, starting at 8 p.m. The incoming president is Mrs. Douglas Ploss. Other officers are Mrs. Donald Bogda, vice-president; Mrs. Ernest Kockler, secretary; and Mrs. Jack Thompson, treasurer. Board members are Mrs. Thor Neumann and Mrs. Jenny Vontesta. The outgoing president is Mrs. Raymond Parpan.

ident is Mrs. Raymond Parpan. Supt. Melvin Colbert will speak of the need for a new school in Lake Villa.

Refreshments will be served by the incoming and outgoing officers. All ladies of the village are invited to attend this first meeting of the year.

Boys' Club

Jim Anthia of Venetian Village has volunteered to supervise the Boys' Club on Wednesday nights at the Hooper School. Boys 11 to 12 years only, may attend the gym classes from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

Ray Parpan will supervise the gym class on Friday nights for the older boys. He is going to night school and had to leave Mr. Anthia take over the Wednesday night classes. Anyone who can give Jim or Ray a hand on Wednesday or Friday nights should drop in at the school. Their help will be appreciated.

New Baby

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lisk of 1703 E. Fairfield Rd. welcomed their second daughter and fourth child January 3 at McHenry Hospital. Christina Marie weighed in at 8 pounds, 3 ounces. Welcoming their sister are Tori 9, Joe 7½ and Marty 6.

St. Mark Lutheran Church Laymen of the congregation took charge of the worship service at St. Mark Lutheran Church Sunday morning. Raymond Rathmone was the liturgist. Arthur Havin and Maitland Harvey discussed the topic chosen for Layman's Sunday.

The Mr. and Mrs. Club will have a skating and sledding party at the Norbert Pischke and Axel Swanson homes Sunday, January 17, starting at 3:00 p.m. New members will be received on Sunday, January 24, at the 10:30 a.m. worship services.

A membership orientation class will be organized on

File Early, Says Coyle

Taxpayers are receiving notices through the mail that the 1965 filing period is under way, and time to file 1964 Federal income tax returns.

Director E. C. Coyle, Jr., of the Chicago District, pointed out that the basic filing requirements remain the same. Every citizen or resident of the United States—whether an adult or minor—who had $600 or more gross income in 1964 is required to file a return. For taxpayers 65 or over a return is not required unless gross income was at least $1,200.

Millions of taxpayers for 1964 or Mrs. Neal Long at Elliot 6-7775.

the first time will receive Form 1040 with their name and address pre-stamped on the face of the first copy of the form.

Mr. Coyle urged taxpayers who received them to use the pre-addressed, identified form for filing purposes, making correction in the label if necessary. This will help assure correct crediting to the taxpayer's account and will facilitate processing of tax returns, including issuance of refunds.

Returns should be filed as soon after January 1 as possible, but not later than April 15. Taxpayers of the twenty-six counties of northern Illinois should file their returns with the District Director of Internal Revenue, 17 N. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, 06062.

You are encouraged to prepare your own return. The Internal Revenue Service has eased your problem by preparing the instructional material, provided with the tax forms, that is easy to read and understand.

The 1965 edition of "Your Federal Income Tax" has been enlarged from 144 to 160 pages to permit a complete explanation of the 1964 Revenue Act as it applies to individuals. Copies may be purchased for 50c at any Internal Revenue office.

Telephone service began on January 4 and will be maintained through April 15. For a quick and correct answer to your tax question call State 2-1080. The service is individual, free from interruption and should prove helpful in the preparation of your return.

For those taxpayers unable to resolve their tax problems by telephone, assistance may be obtained from local offices conveniently lo-

THAT SHOWED HIM

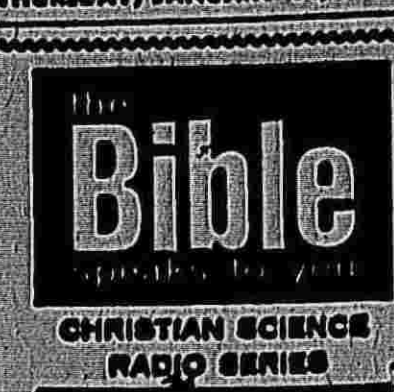

Two trucks met on a country road just wide enough for one. The first driver, a scrawny little man, leaned out of his cab.

"Turn out, you!" he shouted. "If you don't I'll do to you what I did to the last guy who wouldn't turn out for me!"

The second driver was muscular and weighed almost 200 pounds, but did not care to have trouble. He pulled out. As the other driver's truck rumbled by, he yelled, "What did you do to that other guy?"

"Turned out for him!"

ANNOUNCEMENTS

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: I am looking for a position as housekeeper and cook, room and board, for male adult, no small children if possible. Age 52. I also drive. Write Box B, c/o The Antioch News, Antioch, Ill. (29)

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere appreciation to all our friends and neighbors who expressed their heartfelt sympathy to us in the recent passing of Mrs. Frances Cervenka.

A special note of appreciation is being extended to the Antioch Rescue Squad, Father Henderson, Father Hanley, the faculty and children of St. Peter's School, and the Colonial Funeral Home. Their kind services rendered to us during our time of need were most comforting.

Joan and Carol Cervenka
John Cervenka

We would like to thank our many friends, relatives, the doctors and Strang's for the many acts of kindness and sympathy extended to us at the time of our recent bereavement. Thank you.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Johannsen and
Mr. and Mrs. A. Pedersen

CO-OPERATIVES

From Pulaski, Wis. News: By cooperative efforts and by engaging one man for a six months period . . . 12 small industries sold $491,282 worth of goods made in the small towns of Wisconsin. This resulted in giving employment to many people totaling 60,000 man hours of labor. The total cost of this project amounted to only $7,200 or 1.5 per cent of the sales cost. . . . We depend too much on the national government and George to do our thinking, our organizing and our work for us. There is power in co-operative group effort. The results are usually greater than anticipated if the proper organization is formed and many people get behind the wheel to push for common aims. Let's think about it.

POWER OF THE PRESS

From the Sylacauga, Ala. News: Thomas Jefferson was quick to perceive that representative government could not endure in the absence of an informed electorate. He wrote in 1832 that the press was "the best instrument for enlightening the mind of men." His plain inference was that an enlightened electorate would know how to go about organizing an enlightened government. . . . The function is unchanged since his time.
